

Alumni Spotlight: Ali Wolters

Peace Corps Volunteer: Mozambique 2010-present

The Moz-15 group of 70 volunteers at our Swear-in Ceremony with the U.S. Ambassador

A performance at the annual Timbila Festival in Zavala District of Inhambane Province. Timbila is a traditional instrument played by the Chopi people.

Ali “ralar-ing” coconut to make a traditional Mozambican dish called Matapa. Matapa
consists of casava
leaves, coconut milk,
ground peanuts, onions
and tomatoes and is served with rice or maize flour.

Ali and Americo, another English teacher from Escola Secundaria de Guija, with a group of ten 11th and 12th grade English student at the Annual English Theater Competition. The competition took place in October 2011 with 8 different secondary schools in the province of Gaza.

Sunrise over the Indian Ocean in southern Mozambique
near the local fish market

