

Preceptorial Basics

Teaching and Advising First-Year Students

USD's First Major Retention Initiative

- Program established in 1973: small classes + advising

USD's First Major Retention Initiative

- Program established in 1973: small classes + advising
- Helped to move first year retention to 85% for the past two decades

USD's First Major Retention Initiative

- Program established in 1973: small classes + advising
- Helps to move first year retention to 85% for the past two decades
- Goal by 2012 is 90% (88% in Fall 2010)

USD's First Major Retention Initiative

- Program established in 1973: small classes + advising
- Helps to move first year retention to 85% for the past two decades
- Goal by 2012 is 90% (88% in Fall 2010)
- Preceptorial Program, which features CAS Core classes as well as engineering and economics, is now one of USD's premier academic programs

What are the Preceptor's primary responsibilities?

- Summer advisors place freshmen into a preceptorial—preceptees are released to the Preceptor in early August

What are the Preceptor's primary responsibilities?

- Summer advisors place freshmen into a preceptorial—preceptees are released to the Preceptor in early August
- Preceptor meets with Preceptorial class during Torero Days and troubleshoots AP/IB credit, other college credit, math placement, and foreign language placement

What are the Preceptor's primary responsibilities?

- Summer advisors place freshmen into a preceptorial—preceptees are released to the Preceptor in early August
- Preceptor meets with Preceptorial class during Torero Days and troubleshoots AP/IB credit, other college credit, math placement, and foreign language placement
- Preceptor attends the New Student Convocation

What are the Preceptor's primary responsibilities?

- Summer advisors place freshmen into a preceptorial—preceptees are released to the Preceptor in early August
- Preceptor meets with Preceptorial class during Torero Days and troubleshoots AP/IB credit, other college credit, math placement, and foreign language placement
- Preceptor attends the New Student Convocation
- Preceptor meets with each preceptee during the fall and following spring in academic advising sessions

What are the Preceptor's primary responsibilities?

- Summer advisors place freshmen into a preceptorial—preceptees are released to the Preceptor in early August
- Preceptor meets with Preceptorial class during Torero Days and troubleshoots AP/IB credit, other college credit, math placement, and foreign language placement
- Preceptor attends the New Student Convocation
- Preceptor meets with each preceptee during the fall and following spring in academic advising sessions
- Navigating the Banner advising system and interpreting DARS are essential

Developmental Advising

Developmental Advising

- Assisting with setting career goals and graduate school planning
- Assisting with selecting a major
- Assisting with academic success strategies
- Assisting with finding resources
- Advising the Core Curriculum
- In an institution like USD where personalized advising takes place, the students will come to office hours. The best Preceptors are outstanding advisors.

Supervising a Preceptorial Assistant

- Concept of a student mentor connected to a Preceptorial grew out of Preceptor focus groups

Supervising a Preceptorial Assistant

- Concept of a student mentor connected to a Preceptorial grew out of Preceptor focus groups
- PAs are nominated by faculty, selected and trained by PAC, and supervised by a CAS associate dean and a Student Affairs assistant dean

Supervising a Preceptorial Assistant

- Concept of a student mentor connected to a Preceptorial grew out of Preceptor focus groups
- PAs are nominated by faculty, selected and trained by PAC, and supervised by a CAS associate dean and a Student Affairs assistant dean
- PAs facilitate co-curricular events, organize study sessions, and serve as a liaison with faculty Preceptor

Supervising a Preceptorial Assistant

- Concept of a student mentor connected to a Preceptorial grew out of Preceptor focus groups
- PAs are nominated by faculty, selected and trained by PAC, and supervised by a CAS associate dean and a Student Affairs assistant dean
- Facilitate co-curricular events, organize study sessions, and serve as a liaison with faculty Preceptor
- Average gpa for Fall 2010 PAs was 3.63

Opportunities and Support

- Faculty-student interaction fund: $200 per Preceptorial
- MAP-works: third-week transition survey
- LLC preceptorials: Social Justice and Sustainability for Fall 2011
- Resources for Preceptors channel in the Teach/Advise tab
- One course reassigned time award for every two preceptorials taught OR a $5000 summer stipend

Forthcoming CEE workshops

- Spring Preceptor workshops (either April 28: 12:15-2:15 pm in IPJ H&I or April 29: 3:00-5:00 pm in IPJ H&I)
- Preceptor/PA luncheon (May 10, 12:15-1:30 pm in IPJ A/B/C)
- Getting Started with your Preceptorial workshop (August 26: 12:00-2:00 pm in IPJ)