LRC Remote Services and Resources

LRC Building is Closed but Library Services Continue

The LRC building is closed but LRC Services continue.

Student Printing

Students who wish to print on campus can use the Wega kiosks located in the WRts (1st floor of Warren Hall) and the University Center (in front of Tu Mercado and on the lower level).

Reference Team is Ready to Help!

Reference Services Monday-Thursday 9am-6pm, Friday 9am-5pm, & Sunday noon-4pm

The reference team remains available Monday-Thursday 9am-5pm, Friday 9am-5pm, & Sunday noon-4pm. We are committed to providing as many library services to our patrons as we can in this remote working, teaching, and learning environment.

Contact us by chat or email

During reference service hours, we respond to chat requests in real time using the chat widget on the library homepage and email lrcrefer@sandiego.edu.

We check voicemail left on the reference phone, 619.260.4612, three times a day on weekdays and on Sunday afternoons.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions you have.

- For reference/research help, please email lrcrefer@sandiego.edu or use the chat widget on the library homepage
- If you have questions about circulating items, please email lrcirc@sandiego.edu.

Curbside Pickup

Current library card holders may now benefit from our Curbside Pickup service. Items paged via online catalog will be checked out remotely and made available for curbside pickup.

As the Animal Legal Defense Fund combats dogfighting by working with state officials to create stronger laws and more effective penalties for those who engage in this crime, we’re also hard at work to ensure the best possible outcomes for dogfighting victims.

The Animal Agriculture Industry: Liability Proof? →

Earlier this summer, the driver of a pig transport truck struck and killed longtime animal advocate Regan Russell. The circumstances regarding her death are not fully known to the public, but top to bottom, the animal agriculture industry is rarely held accountable.
Search Laws

Laws, also known as statutes, which impact on animals exist in all 50 states and in the federal government. These laws are adopted by a legislative body and are in effect until amended or repealed. To find specific laws regarding animals in your own or another state, or adopted by the federal government, use the search tabs below. To find proposed laws, go to the "Search Legislation" tab above.

Sadly, you can’t make this stuff up (more rescue importation madness)...

As if on cue, a few minutes after we put out yesterday’s blog on imported Korean rescue dogs introducing a new strain of canine distemper into North America, our inbox was awash with this APB:

Officers looking for rescue dog in Leawood that escaped, possibly exposed to rabies

The escaped dog was in a group of 26 dogs imported from Egypt, in which one got sick and tested positive for rabies. The dog that escaped has not shown any signs of the disease itself.

Books: Searching the USD Catalog

USD’s online catalog finds items located in the LRC and also in the Copley Library collection.

- Remember that the catalog can be used to find not just materials in our print collection, but it also provides direct access to materials in our subscription databases, and it also links to websites.

- You can search USD’s online catalog from LRC’s homepage.

Appeals
description: Helps more than 100,000 taxpayers each year resolve their tax disputes without going to Tax Court. An IRS site.

Avalon Project - Documents in Law, History and Diplomacy (Yale’s) description: The Avalon Project will mount digital documents relevant to the fields of Law, History, Economics, Politics, Diplomacy and Government. We do not intend to mount only static text but rather to add value to the text by linking to supporting documents expressly referred to in the body of the text.

The Avalon Project will no doubt contain controversial documents. Their inclusion does not indicate endorsement of their contents nor sympathy with the ideology, doctrines, or means employed by their authors. They are included for the sake of completeness and balance and because in many cases they are by our definition a supporting document.

BePress Legal Repository
description: The BePress Legal Repository offers working papers and pre-prints from scholars and professionals. All law related papers posted to Selected Works are automatically included in the BePress Legal Repository, which means searching in this database saves you time.

Crash Course in Administrative Law Research
Basics of Administrative Law

• Legislature passes a law, giving the broad strokes and “enabling” a government agency to implement the law

• To implement the legislature’s intent, the agency typically will have to do 2 things:
  1. Promulgate regulations that provide more detailed rules & establish oversight processes;
  2. Enforce the law through those processes, including administrative hearings/adjudications

• These regulations & adjudications are generally referred to as “administrative law”
Legislative

Executive

Judicial

Regulations = quasi-legislative

Hearings/adjudications = quasi-judicial Promulgating Regulations

- Agency drafts proposed regulations
- Publish proposed regulations in the Federal Register (Fed. Reg.)
- Opportunity for public comment
- Agency drafts final regulations
- Publish notice of final regulations in Federal Register
- Codify the final regulations in the Code of Federal Regulations (C.F.R.)

Note-taking Tools & Avoiding Plagiarism
Why good note-taking is important

- Bolster your argument
- Avoid inadvertent plagiarism
- Save yourself time and trouble when creating citations
Begin with proper note-taking

- The first step in avoiding plagiarism and giving proper documentation is to cultivate good note-taking habits.
- There’s no one right way to do it. Pick a method that works for you and be consistent.
- There’s an app for that. Actually, there are MANY apps for that. Three popular options:

  - Microsoft OneNote
  - Evernote
  - Zotero
Proper Attribution

- Double-check your work against each source to make sure you have not accidentally plagiarized something.

- Save copies of source material (journal articles, books, online sources) until you have finished writing your paper or until you’ve received a final grade on the paper.
Paraphrasing

- Paraphrasing is restating the meaning of a segment of text either by expanding and clarifying, or by summarizing the main points.
  - However, it's not enough to simply change a few words around, or replace words with synonyms.
  - Instead, you must rewrite the material using your own words.

- Always indicate whose ideas you are paraphrasing by providing a footnote reference (including a page reference).

- Finally, check your paraphrase against the source for accuracy, and modify phrases that match the original too closely.
Bad Paraphrasing

Original Source: “America today has veered too far in the direction of formal testing without adequate consideration of the costs and limitations of an exclusive emphasis on that approach.”

Paraphrase Version 1: America has now gone too far toward formal testing, without realizing the costs and limitations of exclusively emphasizing that approach.¹

Better Paraphrasing

Original Source: “America today has veered too far in the direction of formal testing without adequate consideration of the costs and limitations of an exclusive emphasis on that approach.”

Paraphrase Version 1: In the United States, the education system places too much emphasis on formal testing, overlooking the limitations and expenses imposed when that assessment strategy is employed exclusively.¹

Turnitin at the LRC

- Turnitin at the LRC is an area in Blackboard where students can submit drafts of papers to check for possible instances of plagiarism before they submit final drafts to their course instructors.

- Turnitin is FREE to USD students.

- Papers submitted through Turnitin at the LRC will not be saved in Turnitin’s database and will not be distributed to instructors.

- For more instructions, see our Turnitin LibGuide.
Turnitin compares submitted drafts to its database of scholarly research (journal articles, student papers, and other internet sources) and returns a Similarity Report that highlights a percentage of matching text.
