Our mission, vision and theme serve as the foundation for our professional education unit outcomes. Our unit outcomes, which are carefully aligned with candidate proficiencies and program standards, are grounded in relevant theory and research. Faculty in the School of Leadership and Education Sciences are committed to the preparation of educational leaders as is exemplified by the acronym “ACE”, which describes an expert in the field of education. The outcomes derived from “ACE” are: Academic excellence, critical inquiry, and reflection, Community and service, Ethics, values, and diversity. All outcomes are shared and integrated throughout every program in the School of Leadership and Education Sciences Professional Education Unit.

THREE MAJOR UNIT CANDIDATE OUTCOMES
Common to All Programs in USD’s Professional Education Unit

Given the mission, vision, and organizational theme of USD’s Professional Education Unit, faculty in the unit are committed to three major candidate outcomes that are represented by the acronym “ACE” and by the graphic identity that follows:

- Academic Excellence, Critical Inquiry, and Reflection: Candidates in the unit will demonstrate the knowledge and the ability to represent content accurately by applying effective strategies and techniques in their field of study, by actively engaging in reflective activities, by critically analyzing their practice and by applying higher order thinking skills to a wide array of investigative pursuits.

- Community and Service: Candidates in the unit will strive to create and support collaborative learning communities in their classrooms and their professional fields of practice by bridging theory and practice and engaging in community service.

- Ethics, Values, and Diversity: Candidates in the unit will understand and adhere to the values and ethical codes of the university, of the schools they work in, and of the professional organizations to which they belong. They will support the creation of inclusive, unified, caring and democratic learning communities that value each individual regardless of background or ability, and they will equitably support student learning and optimal development.

CANDIDATE DISPOSITIONS
Common to All Programs in USD’s Professional Education Unit

The final section of this document presents a list of expected candidate dispositions that are derived from the three unit candidate outcomes, and are common to all programs in the unit.

- Academic Excellence, Critical Inquiry and Reflection: candidates should demonstrate 1) a belief that all individuals can learn and succeed, and 2) a commitment to reflection and critical inquiry.

- Community and Service: candidates should demonstrate 1) a willingness to collaborate with peers and members of the educational community, and 2) an appreciation for and willingness to form partnerships with parents/guardians and community agencies that serve children and youth.

- Ethics, Values and Diversity: candidates should demonstrate 1) respect for the value of diversity in a democratic society, and 2) a commitment to high professional and ethical standards.
CREDENTIAL PROGRAM OPTIONS

Traditional Pathway
This option is designed for Multiple Subject (elementary), or Single Subject (secondary) candidates who are interested in pursuing a teaching credential through an individualized program. Credentials may be earned in as little as ten months or at a pace appropriate to the candidate’s scheduling demands. This pathway includes one semester of student teaching that is undertaken upon successful completion of foundations and method classes, CBEST and CSET exams, and mid-point interview. The exit assessment for a teaching credential is the Performance Assessment for California Teachers (PACT), demonstrating competency in lesson planning, teaching, and assessment. Graduate credential candidates may also apply to one of our separate master’s programs (see below). Credential coursework and student teaching are generally completed before master’s coursework begins.

Education Specialist
This program prepares candidates for the Preliminary Education Specialist Credential with Mild/Moderate Authorization, and Deaf and Hard of Hearing Authorization. Courses are designed to ensure alignment with field experience, evidence-based practices and the complex cultural diversity found in education settings. The integration of the master’s degree option with the credential ensures scholarly investigation of research grounded practices that prepare teachers for the complexity of the global, technology-enriched environment of the 21st century schools. A candidate is required to pass both the CBEST and CSET exams prior to the granting of a Level I credential. The Intern option is also available in conjunction with several K-12 schools districts pending availability of intern positions.

Master’s Credential Cohort (MCC)
This is an intensive program designed for students who are interested in pursuing the M. Ed. in Curriculum and Teaching and a Single or Multiple Subject credential concurrently in either a one or two year program format. This program includes two semesters of student teaching concurrent with coursework.

APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS FOR STUDENT TEACHING

- Certificate of Clearance
  - Tuberculosis Screening
  - CBEST and CSET Examinations
Certificate of Clearance
A Live Scan fingerprint clearance and background check through the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) are required upon admission to the credential program. Follow the instructions and complete the process at the San Diego County Office of Education www.sdcoe.net/livescan/week.asp. Once you have completed this step, bring a copy of your Live Scan application to the credentials office in the Dean’s Office. If you hold a California emergency or substitute teacher permit, submit a copy to the credentials office. Note additional fingerprinting and fees may be required by the employing district when hired. A fee is required by the Live Scan service and by the CTC to perform the background check. The certificate of clearance must be posted on the CTC web site www.ctc.ca.gov prior to practicum and student teaching assignments.

Tuberculosis Screening
You must also provide proof of your tuberculosis screening to the placement site administrator prior to any school site visits or placements. This screening may be done by your own physician or at the Health Center on campus by appointment.

CBEST and CSET Examinations
Successful completion of the CBEST CSET Exams (Multiple Subject Credential) or an approved program or subject specific CSET Exams (Single Subject Credential) are required prior to receiving a student teaching assignment. Students still needing to pass these exams, please use the links below to determine the test date timing that will work best for you:

- CBEST Test Dates

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENT

Beginning with students enrolling in the fall of 2008, all degree candidates in SOLES are required to complete an international experience. This requirement may be met through participation in a SOLES Global course or by participating in an international experience across the border, within the San Diego region, or on USD’s campus. Additional information on the international experience may be found online:

- SOLES Global L&T Resource Page
- L&T International Experience Information Guide
- International Experience Form

An international experience within the Department of Learning and Teaching (L&T) is defined as an opportunity for students to interact with individuals and/or institutions from a nation outside the U.S. in a manner that supports their personal and professional growth, nurtures cultural understanding, and prepares students to interact with and effectively serve diverse communities in a professional capacity. All Master’s degrees students must complete an International experience Requirement and Evidence of Completion Form with their graduate advisor. It is recommended that discussions about this requirement begin early in the student’s graduate program.

Through this experience, it is hoped that students will:

- Develop a deeper understanding of another culture
- Appreciate its differences and similarities
- Consider its gifts and challenges
- Understand the educational and practical implications of cultural diversity and globalization issues.
EXIT REQUIREMENT OPTIONS

CREDENTIAL CANDIDATES

Performance Assessment for California’s Teachers (PACT)
All multiple and single subject credential candidates must successfully complete a series of Embedded Signature Assessments (ESAs) and the PACT teaching event in order to complete their credential requirements. More information on PACT can be found at www.pacttpa.org.

MASTER OF ART AND MASTER OF EDUCATION CANDIDATES

As a Masters student in Learning and Teaching, you have the option of two culminating final projects: a thesis or an action research study. Both of the options are rigorous undertakings; however, they have different goals. Below, we provide guidelines for helping you decide whether or not you will be conducting an action research study or a thesis. For more information, please review the Research Handbook.

Action Research Study

The action research study is designed to help you study and improve your practice as a future educator and to help you find effective ways to meet the needs of your students. In Action Research, the practitioner and the researcher are one and the same. In order to conduct Action Research, you need to have direct access to a classroom or other educational setting where you are in direct contact with students. You should choose the Action Research option if:

- You are studying to become a teacher, or other type of school educator.
- You will work directly with students.
- You are interested in having a tool for improving your students’ learning and your instructional practice.

Thesis

A thesis is a piece of original research. While they take on many forms, theses are intended to test theory and to understand phenomena. Those who choose to prepare a thesis are not required to have direct access to students or educational settings; however, the thesis does need to address authentic questions about teaching, learning, and education. You should choose the thesis option if:

- You are planning on going into educational research or pursuing a PhD. in the near future.
- You are pursuing a career in an area other than PK-12 teaching.
- You will not have access to a classroom or other educational setting where you will be in direct contact with students.

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN SPECIAL EDUCATION CANDIDATES

The M.Ed. candidates in Special Education complete a professional portfolio or master’s thesis research project. For more information, please review the SPED Candidate Handbook.
POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

ACADEMIC ADVISORS

Assistant Director for Programming, Sergio E. STUDENT FORMS

Forms discussed in this handbook are available online via the SOLES Student Life, Graduate Records or Registrar’s websites.

Please note that it is the student’s responsibility to obtain all of the required signatures on any form to be processed. However, our Executive Assistant (in MRH 257) is available to help in this matter. Students may submit their form to the Executive Assistant after obtaining their advisor’s signature. The Executive Assistant will then route for department chair and/or dean’s approvals. The form will then be processed or forwarded to appropriate office, except in the case of registration forms, which the student will need to pick up and take to the One Stop Center to complete registration. If you choose to rely on the Executive Assistant’s help in this matter, please allow for a minimum turnaround of five to ten working days and plan the processing of your form accordingly. The Learning and Teaching office does not assume responsibility for forms submitted late, incomplete, or any other way incongruent with the existing policies.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

The Banner system is accessible through the MySanDiego portal. FAQs about this process can be found on the One Stop Services tab.
