

City of San Diego Nonprofit Academy
Building Community Partnerships with Consensus Organizing
May 30, 2019
2:20-3:45pm

Workshop Agenda

- Welcome/Introductions
- Consensus Organizing History
- Mutual Self-Interest and Social Capital

About the Trainers

Jennifer M. Cosio, MSW, PPSC

Executive Director, Consensus Organizing Center

Ms. Jennifer Cosio holds a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Social, and a Master of Social Work with a Pupil Personnel Services Credential. Ms. Cosio has been working at the Consensus Organizing Center since 2008 and became the Executive Director in 2015. She has over a decade of grant writing, community organizing, and program development experience. Ms. Cosio is also a lecturer and Undergraduate Advisor in the School of Social Work at SDSU. Finally, Ms. Cosio is a SDSU Faculty-In-Residence where she lives on campus with her family, and utilizes her social work and community organizing skills to develop and implement programming for students in the residential community to create a sense of belonging and connectedness to the university.

Dr. Jessica Robinson, MSW

Lead Trainer, Consensus Organizing Center

Dr. Jessica Robinson holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Work, a Master of Social Work degree with an administration concentration, and a Doctor of Education degree in educational leadership. Dr. Robinson has an impressive 17-year history in higher education with positions held in both student and academic affairs and is known for her work with creating a highly successful college-going program for youth in foster care. Currently, Dr. Robinson serves as the Vice President of Student Services at Cuyamaca College.