Welcome to OLÉ! Weekend and USD FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS!

The four-day OLÉ! (Orientation Launch Events) Weekend is the culmination of your Torero Countdown. We hope that during these four days you will begin to:

SETTLE IN to your new community at USD, whether it's in your residence hall room, the classrooms, the commuter commons or the dining halls.

CONNECT WITH your fellow classmates, faculty and student leaders who will help you as you begin your journey at USD.

BELONG TO your new community. This weekend is a time to welcome our new community members and help you feel that you belong here.

IMMERSE YOURSELF in this new experience, and familiarize yourself with your new surroundings and the multitude of resources available to you.

This program booklet contains all the information you need to navigate each day of the OLÉ! Weekend program and includes the following:

- A day-by-day guide to the OLÉ! Weekend student program - Find out where you need to be each day and what will happen.
- A Parent and Family Orientation Guide - Thumb through the pages to view the orientation section outlining the parent and family program schedule.
- Additional resources.

HOW DO I FOLLOW THIS PROGRAM?
IT'S EASY, REALLY!

STUDENTS, FOLLOW YOUR SCHEDULE ON PAGES 4-9.

PARENTS AND FAMILIES, YOUR SCHEDULE IS ON PAGES 11-17.

MYSDMOBILE: Check out the OLÉ! Weekend schedule, USD map, tram schedule, your course schedule, grades and campus events all in one place with the USD Mobile App! Download for free through the iTunes Store or Android App on Google Play.
