California Courts

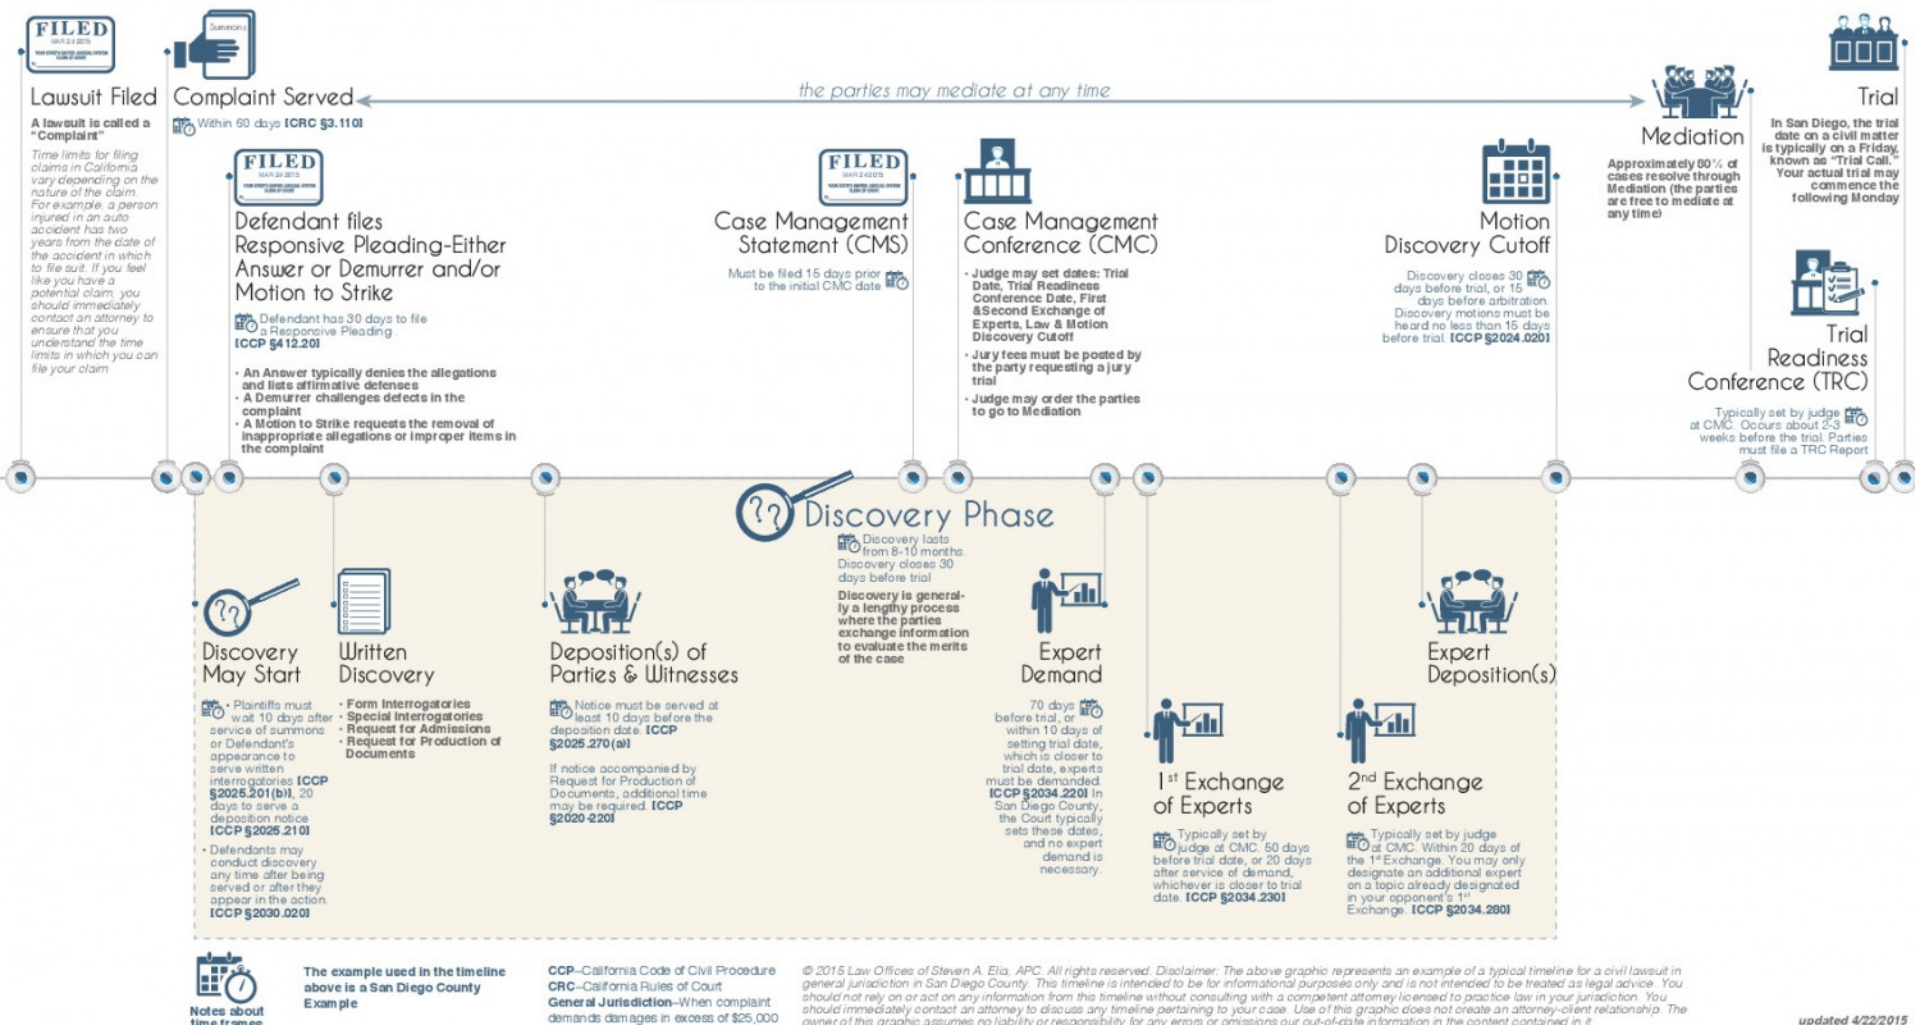

- Superior Courts
 - 58 courts, one in each county
- Courts of Appeal
 - 3 member panels
 - 6 districts divided geographically
- Supreme Court
 - Chief Justice and 6 Associate Justices
 - Regular sessions in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Sacramento
 - Review of the Courts of Appeal is discretionary (writ of certiorari must be granted)
 - Typically only granted to speak to public policy issues or to resolve conflicts between the Courts of Appeal

California Civil Litigation Timeline

(Getting to trial may take 1-2 years or longer)

Five Year Rule. An action shall be brought to trial within five years after the action is commenced against the defendant. [CCP §583.310]

Welcome

Welcome to the California Appellate Courts Case Information System.

This system provides case information for California Supreme Court and Court of Appeal cases. Case information is updated once an hour throughout the business day.

Searches for Supreme Court and Court of Appeal case information can be initiated by supplying trial court, Court of Appeal, or Supreme Court case number or by supplying case caption, attorney, or party information.

Searches for Court of Appeal cases can also be initiated by supplying court calendar date.

Notifications by e-mail of specific case activity can be set up by providing a case number and e-mail address.

Change court ▼

To request automatic e-mail notifications about a case, enter your e-mail address and the Court of Appeal case number, click the case activities for which you want to receive notification, and then click the "Register for notification" button. You will be sent notification of activities that occur after you register for notification. You will not be sent notification of activities that occurred prior to your registration.

Instructions for reviewing or deleting e-mail notification requests for a particular e-mail address appear at the bottom of this page.

NOTE: E-mail notification is provided as a convenient service and should not be your sole source for case updates. E-mail registrations will be deleted from the system six months after a case is complete. If a case is reinstated at a later date, you will need to register again for case notifications.

Published / Citable Opinions

Published or "citable" opinions of the appellate courts are opinions ordered published in the Official Reports, and may be cited or relied on by other courts and parties.

- Official Reports Opinions \(Searchable 1850-Present\) are the searchable, citable, published opinions that reflect post filing corrections. This no-fee service is provided by LexisNexis.
- Slip Opinions are as-filed versions of opinions certified for publication or ordered published; they do not reflect enhancement, editing, and correction for the Official Reports. Slip opinions from the last 120 days are posted together on this page as public information about actions taken by the courts.
- Supreme Court slip opinions are posted immediately on filing at 10:00 a.m. on Mondays and Thursdays. Court of Appeal slip opinions are posted throughout the day as soon after filing as possible.
- Archive of Web Pages Cited in Opinions Issued by the Supreme Court of California

Use the pull-down menu below to select the slip opinions that you wish to view. After 120 days, these opinions remain available via our Case Information Search tool.

Please note that copies of published opinions may also be available from or searchable through sources other than this website.

EXERCISES

Exercise 1

Take about 10 minutes to find the docket for case number CGC-20-584278 from San Francisco County Superior Court.

Then determine the following information:

1. When was the latest amended cross complaint filed and why did it need to be corrected?
2. Who are the attorneys representing the defendant/cross-complainant?
3. Has the case been set for trial and if so, on what date?

Be prepared to describe how you found the docket and the answers to the questions.

(Hint: some databases may not want the case number to contain punctuation.)

Exercise 2

The Third District Court of Appeal certified for partial publication its September 23, 2021, opinion in the Department of Water Resources Cases. Take about 5 minutes to find a publicly accessible link to the slip opinion.

Be prepared to describe how you found the slip opinion.

Exercise 3

This year, the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing filed a suit against a video game developer headquartered in the state alleging the developer has engaged in employment discrimination against women and allowed ongoing sexual harassment against female employees.

Take about 10 minutes to find the docket for this case and a publicly accessible link to the original complaint. Be prepared to describe how you found the both.

(Hint: a publicly available document is not blocked by a paywall but doesn't need to be made available from the original source.)
