Popular Databases

The most frequently-used databases:

- Aspen Learning Library (formerly Wolters Kluwer Online Study Aids Library)
  - The Aspen Learning Library offers online digital access to over 200 popular law school study aids and added video and audio content to provide an illustration of the legal theory. Includes the Examples and Explanations series.

- Bloomberg Law
  - Bloomberg Law integrates legal content, organized in an already powerful system of primary and secondary legal content, company and market information, and news. Individual user access is given to USD law students and faculty. You must register with Bloomberg to gain access to its products and services. Please contact the LRC reference desk to obtain a Bloomberg Law account.

- CALI Lessons
  - Students: use the authorization code you see after logging into USDBOne. Faculty: contact the reference desk for the faculty code.

- CEB OnLaw Pro
  - CEB OnLaw Pro offers a comprehensive collection of legal resources, including statutes, case law, administrative regulations, and various other legal documents. It is primarily used by law students, attorneys, and legal professionals.

Academic Search Premier
- Provides full-text for over 2,940 scholarly publications including social sciences, humanities, education, computer sciences, engineering, language and linguistics, arts & literature, health sciences, and ethnic studies.

AILALink
- AILALink is the go-to resource for immigration law research, providing its subscribers with access to immigration-related statutes, regulations, and important case law (select), agency correspondence and manuals, AILA's government liaison minutes, forms, and a plethora of AILA publications.

Aspen Learning Library (formerly Wolters Kluwer Online Study Aids Library)
- The Aspen Learning Library offers online digital access to over 200 popular law school study aids and added video and audio content to provide an illustration of the legal theory. Includes the Examples and Explanations series.

Avalon Project - Documents in Law, History and Diplomacy (Yale's)
- The Avalon Project will mount digital documents relevant to the fields of Law, History, Economics, Politics, Diplomacy and Government. We do not intend to mount only static text but rather to add value to the text by linking to supporting documents expressly referred to in the body of the text.

The Avalon Project will no doubt contain controversial documents. Their inclusion does not indicate endorsement of their contents nor sympathy with the views they contain.
Researching Caselaw
What is caselaw?

The law to be found in the collection of reported cases that form all or part of the body of law within a given jurisdiction.

Caselaw, BLACK’S LAW DICTIONARY (11th ed. 2019)
General structure of courts

Court

- Court of last resort
  - Most cases never get this far

- Intermediate appellate court
  - Hears most appeals of trial court decisions

- Trial court
  - Almost all cases start here

Weight of authority

- Court of last resort
  - Most authoritative for that jurisdiction

- Intermediate appellate court
  - Binding on lower courts within direct line of appeal; persuasive for other lower courts

- Trial court
  - Decision is binding on the parties, but generally not authoritative for other cases; may be persuasive in the absence of other authority
Federal Courts

- U.S. Supreme Court
- Circuit Courts of Appeal
- District Courts

Finding a case in print

1. Figure out which case law reporter set you need by going to the Bluebook Table 1 (e.g. what does F.3d represent?)
2. Note any series designation for that reporter (e.g. F.3d versus F.2d)
3. Find the reporter in the LRC
4. Pull the volume
5. Turn to the starting page

People v. Trobridge

Court of Appeals of Michigan | Jul 21, 2022 | 2022 Mich. App. LEXIS 4241

Opinions

... dogs upon his border collie (collie) and labrador retriever (retriever). Specifically, the teenager heard the collie cry out from his backyard only to find it being attacked by two American pit bull terriers (pit bulls). The teenager and his retriever went outside to provide assistance only to have a third pit bull attack the retriever. The teenager yelled out for help, and his neighbors came to his aid with sticks and a baseball bat. Collectively, they were able to... View excerpt

Latz v. Parr

Court of Special Appeals of Maryland | Jul 06, 2021 | 251 Md. App. 442

OVERVIEW: In negligence and strict liability action, based on injuries sustained when appellant tried to protect her cat from dog, court erred when it granted appellee’s motion for judgment, as appellee and girlfriend jointly adopted dog and, even though girlfriend was primary custodian, appellee was owner under Md. Code Ann., Cts. & Jud. Proc. §3-1901.

Headnotes

... The holding originally referred to "a pit bull or a pit bull mix," changed the common-law rule with respect to dog attack cases by: modifying one of the elements that must be proven in cases involving pit bull attacks from knowledge that a particular dog is dangerous knowledge that the particular dog involved is a pit bull. If it is a pit bull the danger is inherent in that particular breed of dog and the knowledge element of... View excerpt
People v. Fenenbock

Court of Appeal of California, First Appellate District, Division One | Jul 01, 1996 | 46 Cal. App. 4th 1688

OVERVIEW: Instructions on lesser-included offenses of murder and conspiracy were not required because evidence had not shown heat of passion, provocation, or preclusion of premaditation and because overt acts in accusatory pleading had not provided notice.

... and Heat of Passion. — In a murder prosecution, when the evidence suggests that the defendant acted in the heat of passion upon adequate provocation, the trial court must instruct on voluntary manslaughter. Both provocation and heat of passion must be affirmatively demonstrated. No specific type of provocation is required. The provocation may be anything which arouses great fear, anger, or jealousy. Generally, it is a question of fact for the jury whether the circumstances were sufficient to...

1. County of Los Angeles v. Superior Court

Court of Appeal of California, Second Appellate District, Division Eight  Sep 05, 2012  209 Cal. App. 4th 543

OVERVIEW: Trial court erred in concluding the county code imposed a mandatory duty on the county to capture and take into custody two pit bulls before they attacked plaintiff. Los Angeles County Code, §§ 10.12.090, subd. (C) & 10.40.010, subd. (W), were subject to interpretation and discretion in their application.

Summary: Mandatory Duty Custody of Pit bulls Before Attack. In a case involving two privately owned pit bulls that attacked plaintiff as he was walking home from school, L.A. County Code, §§ 10.12.090C & 10.40.010W, even when read together, could not be construed in the manner ...

F. Cruelty to Animals
§ 122 Generally

Absent any evidence of the viciousness of a dog, and absent a statute to the contrary, liability for injuries caused by the dog may attach only under the due diligence and ordinary care rule. Therefore, absent negligence, no liability attaches. 1

Illustrations: In a negligence action for injury caused by dogs at play, there was no liability where the owner had no superior knowledge of any propensity of the dogs to run into stationary objects while at play and where, if there was any danger, it was as well known to the plaintiff as to the defendant. 2 In an action alleging that the plaintiff had contracted Lyme disease from exposure to infested ticks while a guest at the defendant’s house, during which time the defendant’s dog had sat in her lap, although a dog owner has a duty to exercise reasonable care in the management of
